Public Private Alliance Foundation

Wishes for a Happy and Peaceful New Year!

Dear Friends,

Until midnight December 31 you can gain a tax advantage when you donate to PPAF. Please contribute in 2018 toward our 2019 program.

As our thanks to you, if you make a gift of $100 or more you can select a framed 8" x 10" framed photo taken at the Carnival in Jacmel by Fedno Lubin, a young Haitian photographer. Two examples are here, but you can choose from among 20 thumbnails in the .pdf below. See Upcoming Events, below, for more.

Treat yourself to one of these stunning photographs! Jist send an email to ppafoundation@gmail.com noting your choice. We'll be in touch regarding shipping information.

Your contributions support PPAF's work in Haiti on the environment, clean cookstoves, preventing respiratory and other diseases, and encouraging entrepreneurship, especially with women and girls.

Warm regards,

David Stillman, PhD, Executive Director

Upcoming Events

Photos by Haitian photographer Fedno Lubin have been accepted into two juried art shows, both opening in January. One will be shown at the Upstream Gallery in Hastings-on-Hudson, New Yorkq from January 5 - 29, for which a reception is being held on Sunday afternoon, January 6. Four photos will be displayed at the Blue Door Gallery in Yonkers, New York, from January 12 - February 9. Please join PPAF board members at these events!

Fedno has taken photos for PPAF since he was a student at the Art Creation Foundation For Children (ACFFC) in Jacmel, and PPAF is pleased to show his work to the larger community.
