

Happy New Year! Feliz Año ~Nuevo! Bonne Annee!

The Public-Private Alliance Foundation has posted photos from the Bioenergy Sectoral Meetings held at the National Energy Commission of the Dominican Republic from 2 to 4 December 2009. Many who participated in the Bioenergy International Debate, held from 7 to 9 October 2009, also joined in the sectoral meetings. These meetings were held in cooperation with ResearchPAYS, Inc.

For more information about the December bioenergy meetings, visit PPAF's Blog. To keep up with upcoming events, subscribe to our blog and this newsletter.

Please Give to PPAF before Year-End!

PPAF is a non-profit, non-governmental organization associated with the United Nations.

It's not too late to support PPAF this year. If you are a tax-payer in the U.S., this is an excellent time to help PPAF do its work, and also to gain the benefit of a year-end tax deduction. You can conveniently and safely give online through JustGive

Any donation from $10 on up can be made on-line. Strong support from the public will help PPAF make the case for grants from foundations and corporations.

The Public-Private Alliance Foundation is a 501(c)3 non-profit organization dedicated to reducing poverty in the world by bringing together business, governmental, community, academic, United Nations and other interests. Through collaboration, PPAF helps stimulate entrepreneurship and commerce-related activities and encourage investment for sustainable development. Focusing on the Dominican Republic, Haiti and Madagascar, our vision is to make a difference for human betterment. PPAF works closely with the United Nations for policies and actions to advance public-private alliances.

We welcome corporate underwriters. To learn more about PPAF and to discuss your support, email David Stillman, Executive Director, at ppafoundation@gmail.com Visit <http://www.ppafoundation.org> and www.ppafoundation.org/blog for more information about PPAF.