

CARNIVAL IMAGES FROM JACMEL, HAITI

Photos by Fedno Lubin
(Thumbnails)

ID	PHOTO	DESCRIPTION	ID	PHOTO	DESCRIPTION
1		Little girl in blue	2		Female dance group-orange
3		Zebras	4		Dragon with boy
5		Lions	6		Woman in yellow
7		Dancer in pink	8		Cowboy dance group
9		Two cowboys	10		Boys with giraffe and dragon
11		Girls in orange	12		Painted trio

13

Boy with dragon

14

Woman in pink

15

Drumming group

16

Boy with crocodile head

17

Kay Jakmel drummers

18

Multicolor man

19

Peace sign and grotesque

20

Carnival characters

The Haitian city of Jacmel is famous for its Carnival each year in the days before Ash Wednesday. Known as an artistic center, including for works in papier maché, Jacmel truly comes alive in the annual festival.

Fedno Lubin -- A 26 year old Haitian photographer living in Jacmel. A graduate of the Art Creation Foundation for Children, a locally well-known site for education and training in the arts for selected students from very low income families. Currently completing the baccalaureate degree at school in Jacmel. Partnering with the Public-Private Alliance Foundation (www.pfafoundation.org) as part of its efforts to encourage sustainable development in Haiti.