Happy Holidays!

Dear Friends & Colleagues,

On behalf of our board I am writing to thank all of you who are connected to our programs and people and have supported PPAF's work in the past year. The inspiring photos below represent some of the good work underway. Moving beyond classroom education, testing and demonstrations, we now have solar cookers available for sale.

Please join us in whatever way you can and give your heartfelt support to PPAF and the efforts of our Haitian and international colleagues.

All the best for the New Year.
