Ellen Myra, owner of mYora, is a contemporary jewelry designer from Madagascar. For her creations, Ellen uses precious and semi-precious stones from all over the world, also zebu horn, nacre, shell and natural pearl. Through she highlights Madagascar's rich natural mineral resources in her work. Each of Ellen's creation is uniquely customized and transpired by her passion to exude eccentricity and elegance. Ellen Myra's work has been exposed throughout various trade and international fairs, notably in Europe in the city of Paris, Cote d'Azur, Berlin, Milan, and Geneva to name a few. Ellen Myra will participate in her first American Fair this November to share her unique creation and knowledge.
