

United Nations Association of the United States of America
Southern New York State Division

Challenging Gender-based Discrimination Across the Life Cycle:
The Evolution and Revolution of the Beijing Agenda

In relation to the 59th Annual Session of the UN Commission on the Status of Women Thursday, March 12

Moderator:

Padmini (Mini) Murthy MD, MPH, MS, MPhil, CHES, FRSPH

Associate Professor of Public Health Practice, NY Medical College
NGO Rep. of the Medical Women's International Association to the UN
Board Member, UNA Southern NYS Division

Denise Scotto, Esq.

Founder, Global Legal Strategies

“Reinforcing Beijing: the Convention on the Rights of the Child and CEDAW”

Eleanor Nwadinobi, MD

Manager, Women and Girls, Nigeria Stability and Reconciliation Programme /
Social Development Direct

“Widowhood in an era of failures to contain conflict and epidemics”

Corinne Whitaker, PhD

international health and economic development consultant

“Start from the Very Beginning: Transforming the goals and strategies of the Beijing agenda through a focus on girls”

Orobosa Owie, BA

Director, African Affairs Committee, UNA-SNY Young Professionals
Founder and Executive Director, Young Professionals Healthcare Network (YPHN)
Program Manager, Geriatric Care Management, Hebrew Home, Riverdale, NY

“Young Professionals World Health Day Summit: Cultivating the Next Generation of World Health Leaders” (April 4, 2015)

6:15 – 8:15 pm; light refreshments; free of charge; seating limited to 35
801 Second Ave., 9th floor (UN Foundation) at E. 43rd St.
RSVP: unasouthernny@gmail.com by Friday, March 6